Dear Sister: - I received a letter from Harriet yesterday and I was shocked to hear of your great loss and Carrie I sure do in a measure appreciate your loss for I know that for you to lose your husband is like the loss of a part of yourself. How I wish there was something I could say at this time that would be a comfort to you But the only comfort that I can think of is your memory of the long happy years that you have spent together and of course the children will be a big comfort to you ~~now~~ now. We are all well except Marjorie is still having her trouble I am doctoring with an Ostapath now I think he is a real good Dr and I sure hope he can cure her she started to school but had one the third day and the principle says that it is such a shock to the other children

I sure feel sorry for Marjorie she wants to go to school so bad.
We are having some real cold weather now we are getting paid for the nice weather we had in January. Eva sent Marjorie a beautiful blue serge dress for her birthday but it was too large and I sent it back to be exchanged Eva said they had a smaller one the dress was marked $28.00 what do you think of that? -

Carrie I will close now I want
